

HOGAN LAND SERVICES

A CALIFORNIA CORPORATION

Attention Sonoma County:

Wet Weather Testing is now open. The testing season will end before you know it, so don't miss your opportunity for groundwater testing or wet-weather percolation. Once the testing window closes, the next opportunity won't be until 2014!

Uncommon Viewpoint

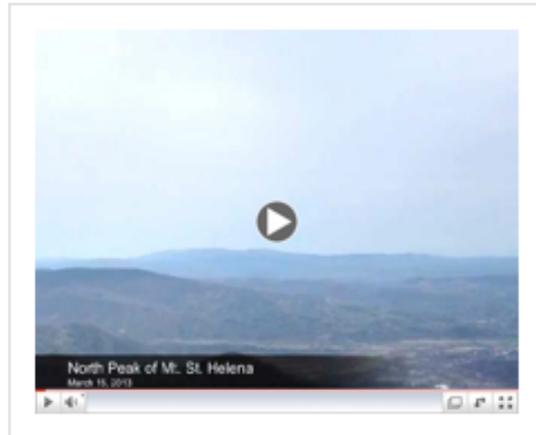

Check out our team surveying from the top of Mt. St. Helena. Now that's something you don't see everyday.

Thanks to all who attended our client appreciation picnic a few weeks ago.

Thanks to County Supervisor David Rabbit for presenting a Certificate of Honor from the Board of Supervisors and Ethan Brown (Economic Development Board) for presenting a congratulatory certificate in recognition of our tenth year in business.

Hope to see you next year!

Mike Hogan
